

'TEACHER IN ISIS PLOT HID KNIFE IN CAR'

A RELIGIOUS teacher had a large kitchen knife stashed in his car when he was arrested for plotting Islamic State-inspired attacks on London, a court heard.

Umar Haque, 25, had allegedly resolved to strike landmarks including Big Ben and Westfield shopping centre in 2016 and early 2017, and hoped to inspire others to join in.

The Old Bailey has heard he groomed and trained youngsters for terrorism at the Ripple Road mosque in Barking, while swearing them to secrecy.

Haque also recruited Abuthaher Mamun, 19, Muhammad Abid, 27, and Nadeem Patel, 26, to help with his plans through the mosque, the court was told.

Police arrested Haque last May, and searched his home in Windsor Road, Forest Gate, and car.

Jurors were shown pictures of a kitchen knife wrapped in newspaper found hidden behind the central console in the passenger footwell of Haque's Ford Focus.

Prosecutor Mark Heywood QC told the court officers recovered YouTube videos on how to make explosives from Haque's devices.

In one video played to the jury, an American man showed how to make explosive powder from everyday items before shooting at it with a rifle, and shouting: "Now that's what I call an explosion."

Islamic State propaganda was retrieved in the search of Haque's computer and memory sticks.

A notebook containing handwritten notes was shown to the jury.

The first page had a 21-point list with references to the "benefits of martyrdom". On the next was four points which included "purchase silah" (arms or weapons), "purchase a van" and "development recruitment pack - USBs".

Haque has admitted having records likely to be useful to a terrorist and a charge of dissemination of a terrorist publication. He and Mamun are accused of preparing acts of terrorism between March 25 and May 18, 2017.

Haque is further charged with preparing terrorist acts by leading exercises in physical training and "role play" with children and dissemination of terrorist publications. Abid is accused of having information about Haque's plans and Patel is charged with plotting with Haque to possess a firearm or imitation firearm. The defendants, from east London, deny the charges. Patel has admitted possessing a prohibited weapon.

Haque taught children aged 11 to 16 at the Lantern of Knowledge Islamic School, Leyton, from September 2015 to September 2016.

The Old Bailey trial was shown a videoed police interview with a child, who said: "He is teaching us terrorism, like how to fight."

The youngster said: "He has been training us, kind of. Apparently fighting is good. If you fight for the sake of Allah, on Judgment Day when you get judged for your good deeds and bad deeds, fighting is good."

"Umar has been teaching us how to fight, do push-ups, given strength and within six years he was planning to do a big attack on London. He wants a group of 300 men. He's training us now so by the time I'm in Year 10 (aged 14-15) we will be physically strong enough to fight."

"We did this scenario how to fight, pretending that three boys had guns in their hand."

He said the boys would split into groups of police and "normal people". There would be a "car bomb" and people would attack the police and their back-up when they arrived, he said.

He added: "Umar, apparently, he told us boys he is part of Islamic State and Islamic State ordered him to do a big attack in London."

"He showed us video clips to encourage us and have faith in God. He showed us a video of Great Britain helping Americans drop bombs in Syria."

He said the Syrian people wanted them to "fight the Americans back".

On the need for secrecy, the boy, who cannot be identified, said: "We took an oath like we would not tell our parents. If we did not promise, we would go down a group."

The trial continues.

Couple just keep on running for hospice

A CHARITABLE husband and wife from Brentwood are on the run again in support of Saint Francis Hospice.

Lee and Becci Rhodes are both avid marathon runners. Lee, 34, will be running his fourth London Marathon on Sunday, April 22 – three of which have been for Saint Francis Hospice.

Lee said: "The Virgin London Marathon is the one to do for me as London is my home city."

"I still have targets I want to beat and I have set myself a target of getting my personal best of four hours."

Both Lee and Becci, 37, will be taking part in their third Brentwood Half Marathon on Sunday, March 18.

Becci said: "It's local, there is a great sense of community and it is definitely the most sociable race I have ever done."

"There is always a band playing and people even come out and hand out sweets to runners."

"Me and Lee don't run together as we have different paces but we are really good at motivating each other."

RUNNERS: Lee and Becci Rhodes

The couple, who live in Brentwood, both work at HCL Insurance BPO Services in Romford, have personal connections to Saint Francis Hospice.

It cared for Becci's great uncle in 2008 and since then it has cared for friends, a neighbour and a work colleague.

Becci said: "I remember visiting the hospice a couple of years after my great uncle died to see one of the ladies I work with and I was really nervous."

"There was such a lovely atmosphere and it was so relaxing; it didn't feel like a hospital. I still remember a lady coming around in the evening to patients with a drinks trolley."

"The hospice feels more like a family to us now and we want to do everything we can to keep raising money for the charity. It is just really in our hearts."

Saint Francis Hospice is a registered charity that employs 150 nurses, doctors and specialist healthcare staff who are supported by 800 volunteers.

Together they provide care and help to more than 4,000 people across the boroughs of Havering, Barking and Dagenham, Redbridge and Brentwood.

TURN HIM IN: The man police want to question

Appeal over sex assault at hotel

POLICE are appealing for information following a serious sexual assault in Barking.

Detectives want to question a large Asian man, in his mid-30s, with dark brown hair and a beard.

He spoke with a London accent, is believed to be known as Jay and drove a silver Audi.

At 10.30pm on Saturday, October 28 a 19-year-old woman was out with friends and returned to her room in the Barking Park Hotel in Tanner Street.

DC Angela Nemeth said: "The suspect, whom she had met earlier that evening, entered the room whilst she was asleep and sexually assaulted her. Despite forensic tests, we have not identified her attacker and are appealing to the media to help identify this man as part of our enquiries."

Anyone with information can call police on 101 or anonymously on Crimestoppers 0800 555 111.

VISIT: Head girl Badriyah Islam with Renie Inow

ROLE: Eden Girls' School students at the Holocaust Memorial Day event

Girls inspired by survivors on Holocaust Memorial Day

STUDENTS volunteered at the UK's commemorative ceremony for Holocaust Memorial Day.

A group of Year 10 history students from Eden Girls' School, Walthamstow, took on their roles at the government's memorial service held in Westminster on Thursday, January 25.

The commemorative event, attended by key political figures, honoured survivors of the Holocaust, Nazi persecution and other genocides.

Head girl and year 10 student Badriyah Islam said: "It was a great honour being part of such an important event."

"We got to meet a lot of people and heard some very moving speeches by some very inspirational people."

Hundreds of survivors of the Holocaust and subsequent genocides gathered to listen to an address from Mayor of London Sadiq Khan and pay tribute to the millions who died.

School principal Shahina Ahmad said: "Our pupils were very fortunate to have the opportunity to get involved in this national commemoration of a key event in global history."

"It highlighted to them the need to learn from the past and empathise with others, to ensure a better future."

"The girls were inspired by meeting survivors such as Renie Inow, to whom they will be writing postcards as part of the Holocaust Memorial Day postcard project.

"Hearing the readings and accounts at the memorial service enabled our students to reflect on the terrible consequences of prejudice and discrimination, and to pay tribute to the strength and humanity of those who survived."

Holocaust Memorial Day, held annually on January 27, remembers the six million Jews murdered in the Holocaust, and the millions of people killed in Nazi persecution and in subsequent genocides.

The date of January 27 marks the liberation of Auschwitz-Birkenau, the largest Nazi death camp.

Patient partner urges more young people to volunteer at hospitals

AN INSPIRATIONAL volunteer with the NHS trust operating Queen's Hospital is appealing for more young people to consider volunteering.

Alex Burulea, 17, is simultaneously working towards his A-levels and volunteering as a patient partner with Barking, Havering and Redbridge University Hospitals NHS Trust.

Alex, of Lindsey Road, Dagenham, hopes to become a plastic surgeon and help people with burns or those who need reconstructive surgery.

He began volunteering with the trust last summer and after a few months was asked to become a patient partner to the children and young people's division. He said: "I wanted to volunteer at my local hospital because of my interest in medicine and I've really enjoyed it."

"The ward staff are great and really engage me in everything. "As a patient partner for children and young people, I speak to patients on the ward, to get their feedback and see where we can make improvements."

ENTHUSIASTIC: Alex Burulea works with Barking, Havering and Redbridge University Hospitals NHS Trust

"I am their representative and as a young person myself, I can understand their concerns."

Alex is appealing for other young people to volunteer.

He added: "Lots of people at my college volunteer, but not everyone realises that you can volunteer at hospitals, and make a real difference by becoming a patient partner."

"I am involved in everything my division does and I give my opinion. That can make a real difference in improving the experience of children and young people in hospital."

Ian James, Chairman of the Patient Partnership Council on which Alex sits, said: "We are very lucky to have someone of Alex's enthusiasm and abilities working with our children and young people's division."

"We're made up of volunteers from the community who are patients or whose relatives use Queen's and King George hospitals. Patient partners work with the trust, helping them to see things from the patient's perspective, and we have them aligned to several of our divisions."

CEREMONY: Schoolchildren, Cllr Darren Rodwell, councillors and veterans in the Peace Garden, Dagenham

BARKING and Dagenham commemorated Holocaust Memorial Day with a special ceremony at the Peace Garden in Dagenham.

Council leader Darren Rodwell spoke to residents, Armed Forces veterans, councillors and schoolchildren. At 11am a minute's silence was held on Friday January 26.

Cllr Rodwell said: "It is important that we remember the horrors of the holocaust. We have to respect the past and we have to learn from it."

"There have been atrocities and genocides since the Holocaust and it is not acceptable. We need to work towards a better future where hope trumps hate."

In addition to Friday's ceremony, an exhibition celebrating resistance fighter Irena Sendler is on display in Barking Town Hall until February 9.

Sendler was a Polish Roman Catholic social worker who helped to smuggle 2,500 Jewish children out of the Warsaw Ghetto, providing them with false identity documents and shelter, saving them from the Holocaust.

Some children were transported in coffins, suitcases and sacks.

Sendler died in 2008, aged 98.

HAMMERS HUMBLED

Red card for Masuaku in spitting disgrace

Football

Wigan Athletic 2
West Ham United 0
FA Cup fourth round
Brian Jeeves reporting
from the DW Stadium

WEST HAM United's involvement in this season's Emirates FA Cup was brought to a shuddering end on Saturday as goals early in each half from Will Grigg earned Sky Bet League One outfit Wigan Athletic a comfortable win at the DW Stadium.

Despite prioritising Premier League survival, West Ham manager David Moyes was quick to point out that success in the cup would come as a boost to his side.

Nevertheless, Moyes made a number of changes to the side which drew 1-1 with AFC Bournemouth last week, with Joe Hart returning in goal and new loan signing Joao Mario on the bench.

Wigan, five points clear at the top of League One, went into the match defending an unbeaten sequence stretching back 14 matches in all competitions.

The Hammers had won both of their previous FA Cup encounters with the Latics, winning 1-0 in a third-round tie in 1984, then more recently a 2-1 win at the DW Stadium 20 years later.

However, the hosts swiftly went about amending those statistics when Northern Irish frontman, Grigg, headed Nathan Byrne's centre powerfully beyond Hart with barely seven minutes on the clock.

The Hammers were already looking shell-shocked as the thirdtier side took complete control of proceedings.

Only an assistant's flag denied the home side a second after Chey Dunkley dived headlong to beat Hart from close range.

Arthur Masuaku was offering the Hammers greatest threat, marauding down the left-hand side. But it was Wigan who continued to look the more likely – Grigg again close, heading the wrong side of an upright after Byrne had once again provided the opportunity.

West Ham were dealt a further blow when Pedro Obiang was stretched off following a strong but fair challenge from Max Power. Meanwhile, on the stroke of half-time, Obiang's replacement, Reece Oxford, sliced high and wide after Antonio Martinez had wriggled clear down the right.

West Ham reappeared for the second period with a spring in their step. But their problems soon deepened as Masuaku was shown a straight red card after appearing to spit at Latics impressive playmaker Nick Powell.

Things soon went from bad to worse for the east Londoners. Reece Burke handled as Grigg looked for an opening, and the Latics striker sent Hart the wrong way for his and Wigan's second of the afternoon from the resulting spot-kick.

Powell continued to tease the Hammers backline, while Byrne's fizzing low cross eluded a clutch of potential takers as the Lancashire side looked to put the contest beyond doubt.

It was a truly miserable afternoon for West Ham, and the huge travelling support had seen enough with many by now already back on the motorway.

The loss of Obiang, through what appeared to be a serious injury, and potentially Masuaku with a lengthy band to follow added to the manager's concerns.

There was little disputing that Wigan thoroughly deserved their victory against a Hammers side that failed to muster a single shot on target.

Moyes said after the game: "We didn't play like a Premier League team, but we didn't have a Premier League squad out."

"We had young players who didn't perform well enough, but we had senior players who didn't help them and Arthur – what he did was despicable. We deserved it and he will deserve everything he gets. He will get something off us as well."

On Masuaku's red card Moyes could barely hide his frustration, adding: "It's unacceptable – totally unacceptable. The referee can't see it so it was the players' reaction that got him sent off but ultimately, they got the right decision so I have got no qualms about it, but I have to say, the ref couldn't see it."

The Hammers boss added: "There is no way the fourth official and the linesman can see it so he went off the reaction of the players. But, let me not try and hide behind the decision of the referee, he got it right."

Moyes' woes were completed by the serious looking injury picked up by Obiang. "We think it's medial ligament. But we will get it checked. I've not had a chance to see the tackle again, it looked fine, just one you expect when you play at Wigan. You have to come up here and expect that, there was no malice in it."

Latics chief Paul Cook, who was celebrating a second successive victory over Premier League opposition, said: "I'm very proud of my players, it's a great day for the club."

West Ham travel to the Amex Stadium on Saturday, February 3, to face Brighton & Hove Albion (3pm).

Wigan Athletic: Christian Walton, Nathan Byrne, Callum Elder (Reece James 86'), Sammy Morsy (capt), Max Power, Will Grigg (Gary Roberts 88'), Gavin Massey (Ryan Coldough 76'), Michael Jacobs, Chey Dunkley, Nick Powell, Dan Burn Subs not used: Jamie Jones, David Perkins, Alex Bruce, Jay Fulton

Billericay hit Tooting for six

By Brian Jeeves

BILLERICAY Town stretched their unbeaten Bostik League Premier Division run to 22 matches as Tooting & Mitcham United were swept aside 6-2 at the KNK Stadium. Jake Robinson hit a hat-trick for Glenn Tamplin's men, while Danny Waldren bagged a brace and Rob Swaine was also on target in the emphatic victory for the Blues.

But it was a disappointing afternoon for other Bostik Premier clubs. Remi Sutton hit Thurrock's goal in a 2-1 defeat at Merstham, while Andre McCollin's late strike condemned Harlow Town to a 1-0 home setback at the hands of Kingstonian.

Bostik North leaders, AFC Hornchurch, required a George Purcell goal two minutes from time to see off Norwich United by a goal to nil at Bridge Avenue.

Mitchell Gilbey and George Sykes found the net after the break as Canvey Island won 2-0 at Romford, while Kieran Bailey's goal on the hour was enough for Maldon & Tiptree at Waltham Abbey.

A first-half penalty from Billy Jones gave Barking a 1-0 win over Dereham Town at Mayesbrook Park, while Jamie Slabber ensured Grays Athletic a share of the spoils against Hertford Town at Parkside. Tilbury slipped to a heavy 5-2 home defeat at the hands of Mildenhall Town. Siju Odelusi and Adam Vyse with the Dockers goals. Meanwhile, Heybridge Swifts were also beaten as visitors AFC Sudbury snatched the points with a single goal success. Bowers & Pitsea lost further ground on leaders Hornchurch after going down to a late Eoin Casey strike at Potters Bar Town.

It was a frustrating afternoon for the region's top-flight National League sides. Leyton Orient played out an entertaining five-goal thriller with promotion-chasing Aldershot Town at Brisbane Road but slipped to a 3-2 defeat. Former Colchester United duo Macauley Bonne and George Elokobi provided the O's goals.

Dagenham & Redbridge slipped to a disappointing home defeat. Fejiri Okenabirhie gave the Daggers hope with a goal shortly before half-time. However, an early brace from Adi Yussuf, coupled with another from Oladapo Afolayan 20 minutes from time ensured visitors Solihull Moors all three points at Victoria Road.

Ben Greenhalgh found the net twice in the opening 22 minutes as Concord Rangers saw off Eastbourne Borough in a decent National South contest at the Aspect Arena. The Beach Boys midfielder grabbed his first from the spot after Femi Akinwande was felled, then followed up after Steve Cawley was thwarted, ensuring the Canvey club remain seven points above the drop zone.

Chelmsford City's promotion credentials took a hit as the Clarets went down by the odd goal in three to Hampton & Richmond Borough at the Melbourne Stadium. Anthony Church cancelled out Max Kretzschmar's early opener for the visitors. But Elliott Charles won it for Borough midway through the second period.

It was a painful afternoon for East Thurrock United who were thrashed 7-2 at St Albans City. Lewis Smith and a Dean Snedker own-goal provided the Rocks supporters with a crumb of comfort on an otherwise forgettable afternoon.

Great Wakering Rovers were the big winners of the day in the Essex Senior League. The Burrough Park club hammered Burnham Ramblers 7-0. Rovers are nine points behind league leaders Redbridge who eased to a 4-1 success at Waltham Forest.

Ilford edged past Hackney Wick by the odd goal in three at the Cricklefield Stadium, while Hullbridge Sports and Enfield 1893 played out a 1-1 draw on a damp afternoon at Lower Road.

Elsewhere, matches between Southend Manor and Basildon United, and Takeley and West Essex fell foul to waterlogged pitches.

In the ProKitt UK Essex Olympian League White Ensign won their Premier Division clash at Bishop's Stortford Swifts 4-1. Rayleigh Town also won on the road, with a single goal at Basildon Town.

In Division One, Buckhurst Hill were resounding 4-1 winners over Shenfield AFC at Rodding Lane. Meanwhile, at Garon Park Old Southendian were 5-2 winners over Harold Hill.

Blues off to a great start with new boss

Southend United 3
Scunthorpe United 2
Sky Bet League One

By Rowland Lyons at Roots Hall
CHRIS Powell's managerial reign got off to the perfect start on Saturday as Southend overturned the form book by humbling promotion-chasing ten men Scunthorpe.

Tom Hopper opened the scoring, with Michael Kightly equalising and Stephen McLaughlin firing the Blues ahead, only for Kevin van Veen to net.

Seconds after Cameron Burgess had been sent-off, Michael Turner provided a stoppage time winner.

Despite a keen Southend start with the visitors on the back foot, the hosts found themselves a goal down after only 12 minutes.

A sloppy Turner clearance saw van Veen allowed too much time and space to cross. Then, the normally reliable Jason Demetriou facing his own goal, made a complete hash of his clearance and Hopper, dived in to net from six yards.

Stung into action, the Blues almost levelled five minutes later when the recalled Marc Antoine-Fortune was left holding his head in his hands when somehow Scunny keeper Rory Watson kept out his point-blank effort.

The Shrimpers kept up the pressure and were unlucky not to be back in the game on the half-hour when the diving Watson made a smart double save to thwart McLaughlin's piledriver, before blocking Kightly's follow-up.

Southend's persistence finally paid off when Kightly's 37th minute cross deceived Watson and flew in at the far post.

With Kightly having almost doubled his tally, soon after the interval, with a wickedly swerving free-kick, on 53 minutes, McLaughlin went one better with an absolute belter of a set-piece that flew through a poorly-organised United wall and comprehensively beat Watson.

However, the Shrimpers' joy was short-lived as they failed to clear their lines from a move initiated by Duane Holmes, and van Veen fired home into the top corner.

Scunthorpe nearly stole the win a minute from time when an unmarked Goode header was nodded off the line by McLaughlin.

Deep into stoppage time, this exciting encounter took another twist when Burgess saw red for a second yellow card after a cynical foul on Dru Yearwood.

McLaughlin let fly with Watson pulling off a brilliant save, but unable to hold on to the Irishman's drive Turner slid in to net the winner.

After Southend's first win since Boxing Day, Powell told the club's website: "Playing the way we did, and winning the way we did, we know we can compete."

Match winner Turner said: "It's a huge performance and for the new manager coming in it's a great start."

Blues travel to Peterborough United on Saturday, February 3, kick-off 3pm.

Southend United: Mark Oxley, Jason Demetriou, John White, Michael Turner, Ben Coker (capt), Michael Kightly, Dru Yearwood, Michael Timlin, Stephen McLaughlin, Simon Cox, Marc-Antoine Fortune (Theo Robinson 83).
